

4. Cancellation

In case of cancellation, for some reason whatever the external costs to travel underwritten at DRSN Tours and Travel Pvt Ltd and incurred by the customer such as transport to the place of departure of travel and return home, fees for obtaining visas, documents of travel, vaccination fees, fees insurance, bank charges will not be able to be the subject of any refund.

By the client:

If the customer is led to cancel his travel for personal reasons (illness, death in the family ...), paid will be refunded subject to the following deductions:

If the withdrawal takes place: More than 30 days before departure: 20% of the total amount of the invoice will be retained. From 30 days to 20 days before departure: 70% of the total amount of the invoice will be retained.

GENERAL CONDITIONS SALE

Less than 20 days before departure: 100% of the total amount of the invoice will be retained. You must inform DRSN Tours and Travel Pvt Ltd by written immediately, the date taken into account for the cancellation will then be the one issued when sending written.

.

Cancellation of one of the participants:

If one or more of the participants belonging to the same group, cancel (s) his trip, the prices will be recalculated according to the new number of participants. The customer then has the choice between: refuse this new price, it will be then subject to the conditions the annulment of paragraph 4 cancellation by the client. confirm your agreement on the new tariff, which will give rise to the establishment of a new contract according to the news conditions.

Because of DRSN Tours and Travel Pvt Ltd : If DRSN Tours and Travel Pvt Ltd is forced to cancel his performances in a case of strength major (political events, weather conditions, etc.), the customer will refunded the deposit paid, net of bank charges and possible non-refundable fees.